

BANNOCKBURN

It is with pleasure we confirm the appointment of Matthew Holmes as new winemaker at Bannockburn Vineyards. Since early Feb. Matt has taken on the role of Bannockburn's "interim-winemaker" with a cool, calm and considered approach. He shares in our desire to produce wines of the highest quality reflecting the terroir of our unique vineyards.

Matt has a past history of involvement with Bannockburn when he filled in as winemaker for the 2005 vintage, post Gary Farr era. So we were very grateful to Matt when he agreed to return from Canada to help us out once again with Michael's sudden departure in Dec. 2014

For the previous 10 years, Matt was making wine in the Okanagan wine region of British Columbia, Canada. During this time he also gained experience working additional vintages in France, Italy, New Zealand and various Australian wineries including Crawford River, Dromana Estate and Levantine Hill.

We look forward to this next chapter of Bannockburn Vineyards with great confidence and enthusiasm.
